Order of Worship of our Triune God for Lord's Day, November 1st, 2026

Ketoctin Covenant Presbyterian Church (OPC)

Call to Worship: Psalm 122:1-4
I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the Lord!"
Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!
Jerusalem—built as a city
that is bound firmly together,
to which the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
as was decreed for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.

Invocation: Lord's Prayer
Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Hymn: 343 – Christ Is Made the Sure Foundation (TH)

Corporate Confession of Sin: O Lord, our great God, all holy, Father most gracious, filled with mercy and steadfast love, we are ashamed and embarrassed to come before you, for we have preferred the ways of this world to your ways, we have rebelled against your wisdom and have invited trouble, we have rejected your fatherly guidance and have gotten lost altogether. Forgive us, not because of our own righteousness, but because of your great mercy. Because of your great mercy in the gift of your Son, Jesus Christ, it is in his name that we pray, for he is our Savior, and the mediator of the covenant of grace. Amen

Assurance of Forgiveness: Romans 8:31-34
What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.
